

I am opposed to allowing more concentration of ownership of media companies. There is already too much consolidation.